

ST. MICHAEL'S TRAINING AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL,
CHARLOTTE, N. C. FOUNDED 1884

The new brick building provides a large shop in the basement, three class rooms, a chapel, principal's office and kitchen on the first floor above ground, and accommodations for one hundred students on the third floor.

The school is highly endorsed by the best people of the city. It is proud to have outlived the stubborn opposition which stood in its way in the early days. The religious phase of the school instruction is emphasized. A number of students have gone from St. Michael's into the Christian ministry, while scores of graduates from the literary and industrial departments are making their influence felt throughout the South.

Following is the school prayer:

"O Lord, we pray thee that thou wouldst put it into the hearts of our friends whom thou hast blessed with much of this world's goods that, when they come to dispose of their good fortunes, they will not forget our dear school which they have nourished and brought up, for Jesus' sake. Amen."
